THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

1st Reading: Acts 2: 1-21

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104: 25-36 (responsively alternate verses)

O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy creatures.

So is the great and wide sea also, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

There go the ships; and there is Leviathan, whom thou hast formed to take his pastime therein.

These wait all upon thee, that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

When thou givest it to them they gather it; and when thou openest thy hand they are filled with good.

When thou hidest thy face they are troubled; when thou takest away their breath they die, and are turned again to their dust.

When thou lettest they breath go forth they are made; and thou renewest the face of the earth.

Let the glorious majesty of the Lord endure for ever; let the Lord rejoice in his works.

The earth shall tremble at the look of him; if he do but touch the hills they shall smoke.

I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being.

And so shall ,my words please him: my joy shall be in the Lord.

Praise thou the Lord, O my soul. Praise the Lord.

2nd Reading Romans 8: 22-27

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

John 15: 26-27, 16: 4b-15

Jesus said to the disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Prayer for a Renewed Church

Almighty God, give us a new vision of you, of your love, of your grace and power, and then, give us a new vision of what you would have us do as your Church in this nation and at this time, and an awareness that in the strength of your Spirit, we can do it to your glory. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

NEWS AND EVENTS

Last Monday, a meeting was held to discuss the Bishop's document "Turning to Grace." This document was prepared during the Bishop's sabbatical.

Archdeacon Tanya Phibbs facilitated this meeting, and asked those in attendance for feedback on the document; with the intent that all comments be compiled from the 10 Deaneries in the Diocese, and reported to the Diocesan Council and ultimately Synod.

The document spoke to "how we are becoming a new church, and how best we react to these impending changes."

Keeping in mind that this document is 32 pages long, and still in a preliminary state; copies could be made available upon request.
